Altho several weeks have passed, I do not want the occasion to pass without thanking you most sincerely for your part in making possible the very fine session whereby members of the Agency appeared before our Washington Seminar group at the Fairfax Hotel on June 19.

The delay in writing you has been caused by our ending the Washington program, getting caught up in Syracuse, and getting started on another summer program sponsored by our University. But now I am trying to say "thank you" to all of the people who helped us.

We were most pleased with the Seminar program this year. As always, the success of such a venture must rest on the cooperation of the people in the government who are willing to appear before our group. This was the first such session with this Agency but it was even more successful than I had hoped. The students were not only interested in what was said that morning, but several of them have talked with me about the possibility of employment.

I enjoyed your talk very much, and also the chance to meet you after having talked so frequently over the phone. I was also most appreciative of the efforts it must have taken to get Kirkpatrick to come along, so I thank you--both for the students and for myself. Hope to see you in the fall if we have a consultants meeting then.

Sincerely,

Don Bishop
